Service Of Nine Lessons and Carols

Nine Lessons and Carols, also known as the Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols and Service of Nine Lessons and Carols, is a service of Christian worship held in churches worldwide and traditionally celebrated on or near Christmas Eve. The story of the fall of humanity, the promise of the Messiah, and the birth of Jesus is told in nine short Bible readings, or lessons, from Genesis, the prophetic books and the Gospels, interspersed with the singing of Christmas carols, hymns, and choir anthems.

The first Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols was held at King's College, Cambridge, on Christmas Eve of 1918. Concerned that the "Great War" had hardened attitudes against religion, the dean introduced the carol service as a means of attracting people back to Christian worship. It was immensely successful and held each succeeding year. The service began to be broadcast by the BBC in 1928 and has been broadcast every year since, except for 1930. Millions of listeners worldwide tune in to the service live on BBC radio and, since 1979, on public radio stations affiliated with American Public Media. In addition, hundreds of congregations throughout the world have adopted this format in their churches as their own Christmas tradition.

A Service of Nine Lessons and Carols

Silent Prayer in Preparation for Worship

Loving Father, today we celebrate in word and song the coming of Jesus Christ, Your one and only Son, as a tiny baby who was both fully human and fully God. Thank You for sending Jesus to pave the way for salvation for all who place their trust in Him. May we rejoice afresh in the wonder and mystery of the Incarnation of Christ, worship and adore Him, and dedicate ourselves afresh to love and serve Him. In the precious name of Jesus, Amen.
